

Crooked Lake Provincial Park

Situated in a scenic portion of the Qu'Appelle Valley featuring mixed prairie grass, groves of trembling aspen and patches of American elm lies Crooked Lake Provincial Park.

Your suntan is guaranteed in a lakeside campsite or on a sandy beach in surroundings that offer an open invitation to visit, to explore and to experience the breathtaking natural beauty, history and many activities in the Qu'Appelle Valley.

The park offers a mini service centre featuring modern facilities with hot water, hair dryers, flush toilets, and shower facilities in the day area. Campers can choose from a variety of activities including fishing or water-related activities, golfing at Last Oak Golf Course three kilometres southeast, hiking, bicycling and photography.

The day use area has lakeside camping, a beach with an irrigated lawn and a service centre, and creative playground. If boating is part of your plans there's an excellent boat launch facility with a fish filleting building for successful anglers. Boat docking is available by the campground.

Crooked Lake Provincial Park features more than 70 campsites including 38 electrified and 21 seasonal. You can also phone to reserve a site. Park entry is $7 daily, $17 for a three-day pass, and $50 for a transferable annual pass. The passes are good for admission to any provincial park. An electrified campsite is $22 with non-electrified $17.

Come and enjoy the beauty and serenity of Crooked Lake Provincial Park, your Qu'Appelle Valley playground. For more information call 696-6253 or 577-2600 (winter); fax 577-2622; or email crookedlake@gov.sk.ca

Sunset Beach: Great summer get-away

Vacationers searching for a summer get-away will find their holiday needs fulfilled at resorts along the north shores of Crooked Lake.

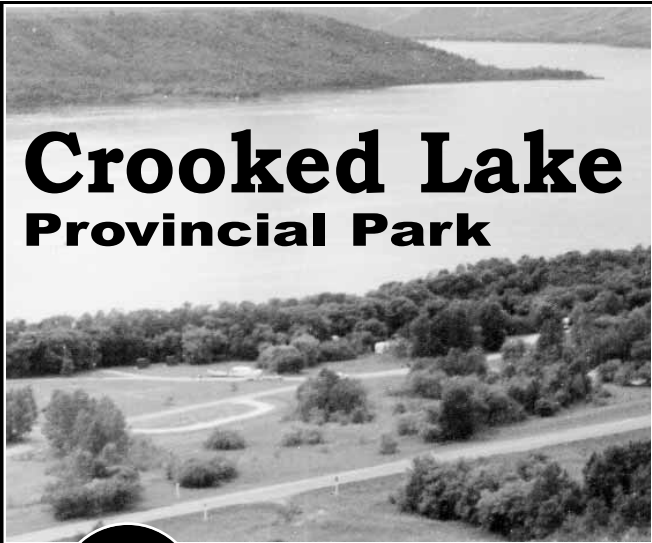

Sunset Beach, located at the east end of the lake, boasts a history that spans more than 100 years. The resort offers a full service convenience store and gas bar, stocked with goodies to fill your every vacation need.

Take advantage of the bountiful fishing. A ramp is available if you're planning on bringing your boat. If camping is your pleasure Sunset Beach has 22 camping sites. The resort also features three two-bedroom light housekeeping cabins.

Sunset Beach also has seasonal campsites.

For the active set don't forget about the beach volleyball courts. And every Sunday from the May long weekend to the September long weekend from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Sunset Beach hosts a Farmers Flea Market.

For more information call 696-2948.

Crooked Lake Provincial Park

his quiet park is situated in the Qu'Appelle Valley at the east end of Crooked Lake. The park is 40 km south of Melville on Hwy. #47 and 15 km east on Hwy. #247.

The park includes a variety of the valley's unique landscapes. Explore its well-defined coulees and wide open hillsides. Take in the scenic beauty of the valley. Enjoy viewing a variety of wildlife and plant communities.

There is lakeside camping and picnicking under a canopy of Manitoba maple and poplar trees. Many of the campsites have electrical service. The park also features a service centre, a camp kitchen, irrigated lawns and a playground.

Fishing for walleye, pike and perch is excellent.

Come and enjoy a quiet, relaxing visit. Don't be surprised if the peace and tranquility of the valley brings you back!

Phone (306) 696-6253 (summer)
or (306) 577-2600 (winter)
Email: crookedlake@gov.sk.ca

SASKATCHEWAN
PARKS

Visit our website at:
www.saskparks.net

Call Toll-free
1-800-205-7070

 Ministry of Tourism, Parks
Culture and Sport