

Plenty of excitement during Railway Daze

Melville's downtown area will transform into a party place July 24th to celebrate its heritage during Railway Daze.

The weekend will be hosted by the Melville & District Chamber of Commerce.

Friday's highlights will include a celebrity dunk tank, sidewalk sales, pig roast, bed race, talent show, egg toss, crown and anchor and on-stage entertainment.

Saturday kicks off with a pancake breakfast, followed by a parade starting at 10:30 a.m. at Mall Road.

Other events throughout the day include downtown beer gardens, talent show, pie-eating contest, sidewalk sales, kiddies inflatables, antique tractors, a classic car show and bed races as well as various historical displays and food venues to please the palate -- the day concludes with a downtown street dance, all sponsored by the Melville Chamber of Commerce.
